Chateau Mouton Rothschild 2012 750ml (A set of 2 bottles)

Dense and almost black in hue, the colour is enhanced by subtle shiny reflections. The nose combines nobility, elegance, and complexity. Opening on fruity fragrances (black fruits with aromas of blackcurrant, crushed blackberries), the bouquet gains in complexity as it breathes, through notes evoking a cigar box and spices. A full and fleshy attack gives way to a dense palate with enveloping tannins. The palate combines cocoa and vanilla flavors up to a seductive finish of freshness, aromatic intensity, and minerality.

Chateau Margaux 2013 750 ml (A set of 3 bottles)

It has a very masculine slightly earthy bouquet, offering a mixture of black and red fruit, bay leaf and cedar, a little more introverted than previous vintages, opening with time to reveal its trademark dried violet aromas. The palate is medium-bodied, silky smooth on the entry. There is not a huge weight in the mouth but it glides or rather flows nicely.
